Dear Mrs. Sullivan:

This book was sent to you pursuant to your inquiry to the Alan Burke Show. It was mailed in good faith, with the request that, if you did not want,it, you should please return it to me. The letter which accompanied it so stated.

The book has not been returned, nor have you sent payment. If it is an oversight, would you please drop a check in the mail now before you forget? After this long time, we assume you would like to keep the book.

Thank you.

Yours truly

L. Weisberg
